

WHAT WOULD GANDHI DO?

Now is the time for Democrats, led by Representatives Jim Himes and Al Green, to show their commitment to our Constitution by applying Mahatma Gandhi's techniques for resisting an oppressive regime.

In the spirit of compromise, our Democrat Congressmen and their supporters should agree to boldly protest every un-American Trumpian outrage, but politely and peacefully. When commanded to disperse, they must respectfully refuse to back down. They will probably be beaten, perhaps shot, and ultimately arrested. This spectacle, and that of prisons packed solid with politicians, like-minded activists, undocumented immigrants and displaced children, will make "good television." When it becomes clear that we are willing to suffer great sacrifices to preserve our democratic traditions, Trump will be sent packing in the discredited manner of Senator Joe McCarthy, hopefully to a humble dacha provided by his buddy Vlad, somewhere in Siberia where he can continue to rail about his "unfair" and "rigged" treatment by the "radical" "ungrateful." Perhaps Americans will also reclaim some of the respect we have lost around the world as a consequence of his fascistic, staggeringly corrupt, tenures.

See you in jail.

Gene Burshuliak